MYRON P. SMITH, last semester's editor of El Don, whose issues of the student publication were this week awarded an All-American rating among junior college papers throughout the nation. This is the eighth award of its kind to be won here since 1931. Smith is attending Teachers' college in Greeley, Colo.

Students Warned About 'Eye Dog'

Students who were seen this week molesting the "Seeing Eye" dog at the rear of 820 Bush street, across from the campus, are warned to discontinue the practice or suffer police action, according to local officials.

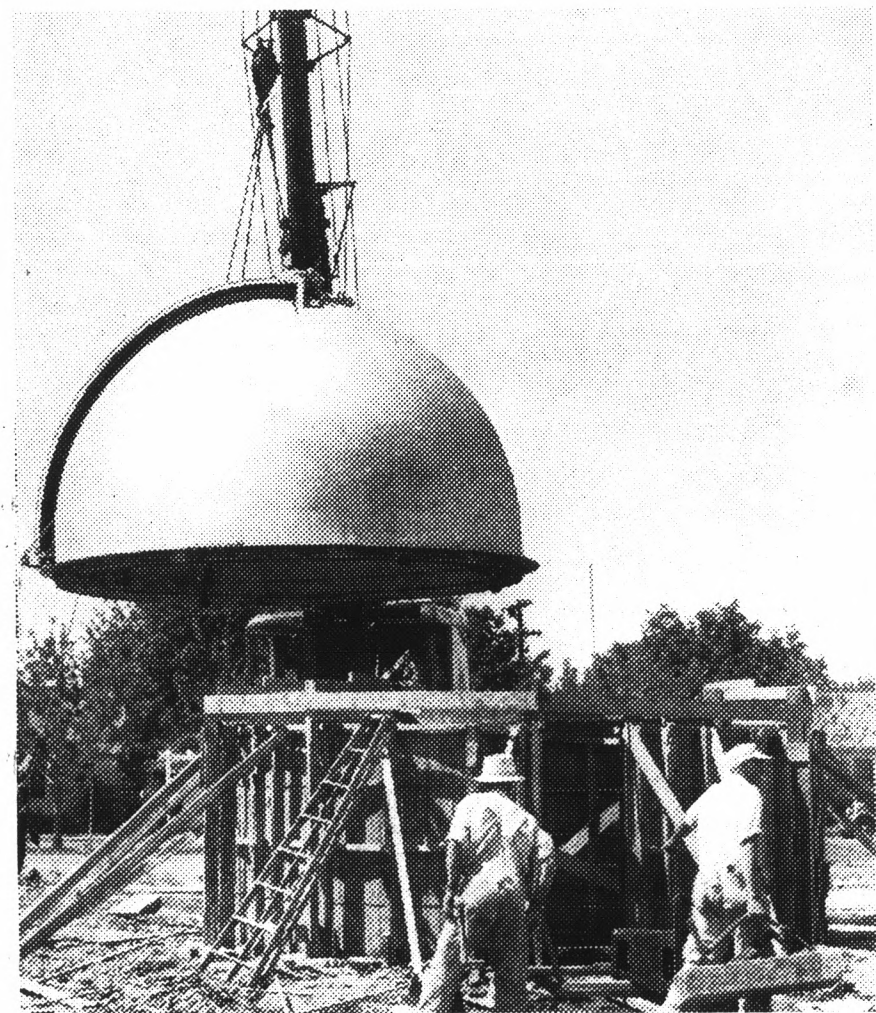

The dog attends Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Kuborn, who are both blind and need the assistance of the animal in getting about the city.

"We feel that students will be glad to cooperate when they know the circumstances," Director D. K. Hammond said this morning. "The dog is allowed to run in the backyard, which is fenced, and cannot possibly interfere with local students. If students persist in stoning or molesting the animal, however, we will see that police action is taken to stop them."

Dance Held Tonight At Morton Studio

A dance, sponsored by the Bucaneer's club, will be held at the Mary Morton Dance Studio, Second and Broadway, following the football game tonight with the Pasadena Bulldogs.

The dance, requested by various students, will last until midnight, with admission set at 10 cents for stags, and 15 cents per couple. Student body tickets must be presented before admission will be granted.

WILLED TO THE JUNIOR COLLEGE by Mrs. Anna M. Tubbs, former patron of astronomy students, the eight-inch telescope used for years by star-gazers will be housed in the two-and-a-half ton dome shown here, now being reconstructed on the local high school campus. The dome, estimated at a cost of $950, can be revolved at the touch of a finger. It will be completed in approximately two weeks.

Piper Named Soph Class Head In Primary Race

Flight Instructor Names Applicants

Flight Instructor H. O. Russell today listed 28 tentatively eligible applicants for flight training through the jaysee Civilian Pilot Training program, and announced that additional applicants are desired. A quota of 40 has been set for the fall course.

Because women pilots are of "little military value" present plans include the training of only one woman, Margery Reibold.

To complete eligibility, the applicants must have a successful interview with the flight operator, pass the Civil Aeronautics medical examination, secure accident insurance, and give evidence that they have available time for the course, Mr. Russell said. All tentative students have passed the college medical exam given by Dr. Arnold Bode, school physician.

Included in the list of applicants are Donald Adair, Frank Ausing, Howard Bobo, Lester Bock, Ralph Bradley, Robert Bridge, Lloyd Chapel, Henry Corneel, Ernest Decker, Robert Elzig, Floyd Gorton, Dave Griffith, William Hart, Fred Blauer, Kenneth Helberg, Marvin Jacobs, Warren Kennedy, Richard Leininger, George Lincoln, Clifford Muchow, Robert Nelson, Leonard Streva, Bill Swanson, Wayne Tarvin, Marvin Webb, Gordon Wilde, and Derrel Wollert.

30 NYA Assignments Made This Week

Thirty NYA jobs were assigned this week out of the 300 applications filed here this semester, Supervisor Calvin C. Flint said today.

A new ruling makes the faculty member or the custodian responsible for the bookkeeping and the record of each student-worker.

To Select Frosh Officers Today

Wayne Piper is president of the sophomore class today as collegians go to the polls for the second time this week to determine the final vote for the offices of freshmen president and sophomore treasurer, the only positions left undecided in Wednesday's primaries.

In the final race for freshman president are Chester Clark and Bob Wahlberg who garnered enough votes in the primary election to crowd Conrad Hanson from the presidential race. Jimmie Yamada and Dorothy Allen are vying for sophomore treasurer, after eliminating Maurice Young.

Jean Dowds gained a majority vote Wednesday to win the office of Associated Women Student secretary holding a 17 vote margin over rival candidate Toni Delaney. A total of 197 feminine votes figured in the count.

Other sophomore officers elected in the primary ballot are Mary Ann Maag, who gained a four vote margin over Grace Cook to become class secretary, and Brent Wahlberg, who garnered a comfortable majority over Bruce Ragan in the race for vice-president. The sophomore vote totaled 173, while the freshman total was 154.

DeLacy Cook, sole candidate for freshman vice-president, was automatically named for that office.

Since no candidates were nominated for freshman offices of secretary and treasurer, Associated Student executive action taken this week directed that "the new freshman president shall call a special class election" to fill the vacant posts.

The list includes all enrollees who are not carrying enough units to complete graduation requirements this year, Miss Whiting explained.

College Pledging to Disappoint Large Number of Students

(Editor's note: The following article, reprinted here by courtesy of the Santa Ana Register, is appropriate at this time because of club pledging activities on the local campus.)

By RUTH MILLETT

In the next few weeks there is going to be a lot of unhappiness on college campuses. The girl or boy who wants to pledge a sorority or fraternity and is overlooked or turned down will feel pretty bad about it for a long time.

It doesn't matter that older people may think it is a mighty unimportant business. It isn't to the young.

Some of them carry a chip on their shoulders all through college because of it. Others lose all interest in campus activities. Still others stop school at the end of the first semester, making up some excuse for their parents and friends.

It is too bad they don't know how easy it is for a boy or girl to get along famously without a sorority or fraternity—so well, in fact that in a year he can have bids from any group he cares to join.

URGE ACTIVITY

All he has to do, is to make a go of it alone. Get on the debating team, on an athletic team, get a job on the college paper or

The student enrolled from the farthest point north is Juanita Conkle who comes from Canada.

From the farthest point east comes William Bailey who resided in Maryland. Two other eastern coast states represented are Massachusetts by Alton Fish and Allan Westphal, and New York by Richard Davey.

The student from the farthest point south is Berneice Ralston who comes from New Mexico.

Name Four To Fill El Don Positions

Staff positions on El Don were filled today, with the announcement that four sophomore journalism majors were to take over duties this semester.

Appointments by Instructor John H. McCoy resulted in Mary Bryant taking charge of the society page, replacing Audree Wilsey, present editor-in-chief. Vic Heim, former commissioner of advertising, edited this week's sports page, after Margaret Schmitz, '40, established precedent by becoming the first woman sports editor in campus history.

Features will be handled by Jimmie Yamada, recently named editor of Del Ano, local yearbook. Betejo Henderson is soliciting advertising.

Staff cartoonist remains Gene Hamaker, while Jack Sullivan takes Russ Morrill's place as photographer.

Stephens Appointed To Del Ano Staff

J. R. Stephens was today appointed photograph editor of Del Ano with Jack Sullivan as his assistant. Appointments made last week included Jimmy Yamada, editor; Samae McCorkell, art editor; and Jack Clark, business manager.

GETTING AROUND

By GLENN TOWNER

Let's take a look at last year's Eastern conference champions, Chaffey, and see what kind of a football machine Coach Burt Heiser has drummed up to represent the inland city college for this year's conference race.

The Panthers have been in the process of rebuilding what is left of last year's vaunted team. Graduation took such outstanding players as Hal Finney, Henry Van Ginkel, Rex Workman, Urban Luginbill, Jack Kelly, Tom Tierney, and many other first-class players. With Harry Muns as the only returning regular, Heiser has had to mold a completely new team, but his new material can be compared with anything the other conference schools have to offer.

Don't sell Chaffey short, however, for losing their opener to the Long Beach Vikings. Statistics may show a decided edge for the victors, but it must be remembered that the beach team has many more returning lettermen, while the Panthers are breaking in a whole new squad. At that, Chaffey made a total of 168 yards gained, to the Viking's 180. That's not bad for a rebuilt team. They were a little awkward with the ball, fumbling six times, but Heiser will iron that out in short time. When Oct. 18 rolls around, and the Dons meet Chaffey in the Municipal Bowl, Coach Bill Cook's boys may literally have a Panther on their hands.

Larry Monroy, left halfback hope of the University of Oregon, and one of the best backfield men to emerge from the local college, has been double-crossed by Lady Luck again. Hampered by injuries last year, while playing under Don colors, he has picked up where he left off. Suffering a summer injury from baseball, he has decided to remain out of school this year. Better luck next season, Larry.

You might be interested to know that: Paul Sedar has nine brothers, all playing football, either on high school, college, or professional gridirons. Imagine a billing reading—Sedar family, versus, Pasadena . . . Jack Leicht, Pasadena Junior College's successor to Jackie Robinson who led the Bulldogs to a 12-6 victory over the Dons last year, has returned to the Pasadena campus instead of going on to USC as planned. He'll be in there tonight trying to repeat last year's history . . . Bob Bryant is carrying the ball as a full-fledged fullback for the first time this year, having served in the capacity of a line-man during his high school days at Olton, Texas. He was converted to the backfield spot by Cook, who believed he would show up better at that position.

Weekly Lineups Are Distributed Here

With a total of approximately 30,000 programs to be printed by the end of the football season, Quality Printers, 417 North Broadway, are distributing 3,000 lineups at each jaysee home game. Entering upon their second year as printers of the weekly programs, the shop expects to distribute 5000 programs for the more important games including tonight's Pasadena contest.

Dons-Bulldogs Meet In Bowl Tonight; Cook Attempts Third Straight Win

Ward Begins Sixth Year Under Uncle

Starting the sixth year under the coaching of his uncle is Bob Ward, left half on the grid team, who is also co-captain of the track squad.

Bob, who resembles his mentor uncle, John Ward, played under the latter for three years at Garden Grove and was constantly coached by John as the two were separated by schools, in 1939.

HOLDS RECORDS

During the 1939 football season young Ward was ranked as third string all-Southern California full-back in the preps as well as later being among the "big three" in shot putters. He still holds several Garden Grove weight records.

Last fall Bob was laid up with an injured leg and failed to see much action near the end of the Don campaign. However, he played in several conference grid games, forfeiting a season of eligibility that could have been his, if he had dropped out.

LEG BETTER

This season the leg injury has disappeared and he is playing for the Dons. Bob who tips the scales at 185, is considered much more suitable for a backfield position than in the line.

Cook Gives Review Of Friday's Game

Santa Ana's Dons today looked forward to their game with Pasadena jaysee after defeating Santa Monica 32-0 last Friday.

"Blocking and tackling was decidedly better than that of our opening encounter," Coach Bill Cook disclosed, "but we still have many points that need ironing out. As it was our second game and only the first for Santa Monica," he continued, "the game revealed very little as to how good a team we have."

When questioned concerning the apparently large loss of yardage arising from penalties, Cook said, "The boys were playing aggressive football and it was to be expected. They were a little over-anxious to make a good showing and that may account for it. After we have had several more games under our belts these faults will undoubtedly disappear."

Cook was reluctant to praise the Dons for their showing against the Corsairs, but admitted that "we are improving all the time."

Key Awards Offered 'Don of the Week'

Bronze keys inscribed "Don of the Week 1940" will be presented to Tony Podobnik and Bob Bryant the first two Dons of the Week for this season, a representative of Vandermast's revealed today.

In previous years merchandise orders were given to players, but this year team members decided that they would prefer having something they could keep.

A photograph of the current Don is displayed in the show window at the store each week.

Don of the Week is chosen by the popular vote of local fans, Associated Students, business and professional men. The player is selected on the basis of outstanding and valuable performance in the previous game.

Ballots are deposited in the box at Vandermast's, 120 West Fourth.

Basketball Twins At Jaysee This Year

Attending Santa Ana today are Pete and Jack Klein, Chicago twins who registered here recently, after choosing to continue their education at the local institution instead of Fullerton.

Former Waller high students of northeast Chicago, they played basketball for two and one-half years under Coach Russ Chapell, who reportedly has one of the best coaching records of any high school mentor in the nation.

Co-captains last year of a city championship squad, the recent enrollees were on the all-city quintet for two consecutive seasons.

Although only 18, the twins, Pete, who plays forward, and Jack, who is a guard, are expected to progress rapidly under the leadership of Coach John Ward.

County Signs List Grid Schedule

Seven outdoor billboards advertising the Don football schedule have been erected throughout Orange County, it was learned today from Director D. K. Hammond.

These boards are to be found in Orange, Corona del Mar, Newport Beach, Huntington Beach, Midway City, Garden Grove, and Costa Mesa.

Pasadena, Compton, and Long Beach Junior colleges have used this advertising system and found it profitable, Mr. Hammond said. Each ad will run for a period of two months.

WAA 1940-41 Plans Near Completion

Plans for the year's WAA calendar were well underway following the board meeting in the YWCA last Monday it was learned today from Adviser Zena Leck.

Managers appointed for the two seasonal sports were Thelma Ameling, tennis, and Isabelle Rellstab, basketball. Miss Ameling has already arranged for the inter-class tennis tournaments to determine the individual standings.

The women are now practicing for a tennis tournament with Long Beach jaysee in the near future. Other practice games looming before the netters are the matches with Compton and Fullerton.

Practice sessions are being held Monday through Thursday of each week. The date for sports Playday has not been chosen as yet.

No Practice Sessions For Hoopsters Yet

Headcoach John Ward today announced that the 1941 edition of the Don basketball squad will not be able to have its first practice session until early in December. This is in compliance with an Eastern conference ruling and outlaws any early practices.

The Don hoop mentor, who lost all of his last year's first string, with the exception of Hal Lilley, does not know much about this year's material as yet.

Yale college was originally located at Saybrook, Conn.

Gunther's Absence To Weaken Team

Playing without the services of Dick Gunther, left wingman, Santa Ana's chances will be definitely weakened tonight when the Dons meet Pasadena in the local bowl. Game time is 8 o'clock.

The Bulldogs, who eked out a 12-6 victory over Bill Cook's eleven last year, boast of an even stronger squad this season. Led by Jack Leicht, former Stockton high flash, Pasadena has a line equally as heavy as the Dons.

Leicht, who was headed for USC changed his mind and returned to Tom Mallory's eleven for another season. Starting at the quarter or tailback spot, Leicht has run around 9.7 in the hundred. Another Bulldog, who will probably give the Dons a busy evening, is an end named O'Laughlin who has starred for the visitors in earlier games this season.

The visiting eleven, who trampled Pomona jaysee 20-0, have one of the heaviest squads against which the Dons will buck. The Dons won 12-6 over Pomona last year.

Countering this formidable team the Don headcoach will open the game with his "first string" which will probably include: Bill Joseph and Bob Schildmeyer, ends; Co-captain Paul Sedar and Jim Crowther, tackles; Bill Barry and Tony Podobnik, guards; Co-captain Bus McKnight, center.

Although he has any number of possible combinations, Cook will probably start Bob Bryant, mammoth fullback, "Prunty" Parsons at quarterback, "Whity" Rogge, former navy player, and Hal Lilley at the blocking half positions.

Rah! Rah! Rah! BOB BRYANT!

Bob Bryant earned the fans' votes for last week's "Don-of-the-Week!" Hurrah for Bob! And now, a reminder about how this voting works:

Take a line-up, or any old piece of paper, and, after each football game, put a ring around the name, or write, and bring or mail it to Vandermast's. If you bring it in, deposit it in the box at the front of the store.

National Newspaper Week

National Newspaper Week ends next Tuesday. Oct. 1 to 8 was rescued from the ice-cream, prune, orange, cereal, and asparagus people by several leading newspaper publishers in this country, who wanted to reserve the week for explaining to their readers the advantages and methods of the American press.

Let's localize it—to this college, to El Don. This seems an excellent opportunity to explain the paper's aims, its reason for sticking to certain policies.

Perhaps the most recurring "beef" the paper receives from the Associated Students concerns gossip. A certain segment of the men and women in college are apparently depressed without a resuscitating bit of scandal; they say, "... but in high school we had gossip in the paper, and everybody enjoyed it." And that is the reason El Don does not publish gossip—simply because it's high-schoolish and puerile. This refusal to print tripe was largely responsible for the All-American honor awarded to last semester's El Don, for all the other leading honors the paper has received.

On the other hand, another important policy of El Don has the complete support of the Associated Students; all protests seem to come from the outside. To any one attending college, the necessity of a new campus is rather definite. Since this need has been felt, El Don has cajoled, preached, and bellowed for a new junior college. No dice—yet; but the paper will continue to stump for a new campus, which steadily increasing enrollments seem to make inevitable.

Those two policies may be called fundamental. There are others; however, they vacillate, depending on the personal attitude of the editor in control. Suffice to say, at present, that El Don remains politically neutral as far as it is possible to be politically neutral. And it feels that the Cincinnati Reds haven't got a chance.—J.Y.

Club Initiations Modified

Initiation rites by men's service clubs have been modified this year—by law. Despite the strenuous objection of certain club members, the number of days for pledging, the thickness of paddles, the quota of swats administered to each pledge, and the type of clothing to be worn during pledge week have been limited. And it's about time. But it's too bad the initiative had to come through the Dean of Men's office.

Why do men's service clubs fawn on a desirable member and go out of their way to be nice to him, then, after he's firmly hooked, beat him? The most common explanation is: "We've got to see whether he can take it." Now ain't that lovely! The pledge hasn't much choice except to take it; they'd make a man out of him, even over his dead body. Those people who screamed with anguish because the amount of paddling was reduced would undoubtedly be less anxious to test the manliness of pledges if it was to be done by boxing, wrestling, or some other method in which the pledges would have had a chance to fight back.

Next to the de-emphasis on paddling, the prohibiting of informal initiations on the town streets will have the most salutary effect. Though the sight of queerly dressed kids, with molasses and cracker crumbs in their hair, beating each other with paddles may be elevating, it is hardly intended to make the citizens of the city glow with pride for the junior college. The service clubs should have realized this. They didn't.

These reforms were brought about because they seemed necessary. When the need for revisions in initiation procedure was called to their attention, many members of service organizations agreed; others did not. The new laws were ratified over the protests of the latter. In the next few weeks, may all service club members obey them.

College and Conscription

Peacetime military conscription of the nation's young men for the purpose of bolstering the national defense is about to become a fact. Whether college men 21 and over like the prospect or not, they now face compulsory registration which for some will lead to service in the nation's armed forces.

As is to be expected, campus support throughout the country for the Burke-Wadsworth bill has lagged considerably behind the support given the measure by the population as a whole. A recent tabulation of press polls showed that 66 per cent of America's adult voting population favored conscription. Unfortunately, collegiate opinion up to now has not been sounded as extensively as that of the general public. But it is a safe bet that an objective sampling, following the methods of Dr. Gallup's Institute of Public Opinion, would find college students voting considerably less than two-thirds in favor of compulsory military training.

Nevertheless there have been straws in the wind these last few weeks indicating that even among students there is growing sentiment that America must call its manpower to the alert. Undergraduate and faculty groups and individuals in increasing numbers have concurred that some sort of a draft is necessary.

Attitude of the administration and of local draft boards toward actual conscription of college students remains to be seen in actual practice. There seems some basis for the prediction that the proportion of students called to camp will not be high. But at any rate conscription is here, despite thousands of lusty "nays" from hundreds of colleges.—A.C.P.

TREES, TREES, MILLIONS OF 'EM

When a stranger enters Santa Ana, little does he know that he may get lost in a forest. If the Chamber of Commerce would like to have an added attraction to their already numerous ones they should hang a sign at the city limits that reads "WELCOME TO SANTA ANA AND IT'S FOREST."

In the first place, the stranger might be driving peacefully down West Fourth street when he would run right into Sycamore. No damage being done he continues his journey westward. During the next half hour, if he would just roam around the west part of Santa Ana he would meet up with Birch, Chestnut, Magnolia, Myrtle, Olive, Pine, Walnut, and Lime Streets.

If this stranger happens to like the east part of town better he would be likely to get acquainted with Cedar, Cypress, Evergreen, Hickory, Oak, Orange, and Palm Streets.

Any which way the poor fellow turns he would be surrounded by sTREETS. Another suggestion to the Chamber of Commerce would be to supply every person with a map of the city so there would be no chance of getting lost in the forest of sTREETS.—Bertmann

For Students Only El Don Mail Box

SANTA ANA, Oct. 4—(To the Editor of El Don:—) For the past few years there has been a lull in the rooting section at the football games. This being not the fault of the yell leaders and song leaders, but due to circumstances within the section. There have been so many outsiders getting in with other people's student body tickets and too many of the students bringing all of their friends with them, insisting on letting these friends sit with them at the games.

This year I propose to eliminate all of this procedure and reserve the section for students only, for I feel that we have a team that is going places and deserves lots of support. With the proper cooperation of the students I feel this can be accomplished and be a great help to the team.

For the next two home games I am going to pass out papers with all of the Don yells on them. I feel that if the students will look these over and when the time comes to "give out" we will have an outstanding section, for all around our campus and all over town there is great enthusiasm about this year's team.

So let's all turn out to the games and give the team our full support both in yells and songs.—Chet Clark

SANTA ANA, Oct. 2—(To the Editor of El Don:—) The game Friday night was well attended and possibly a dozen more would not have been important. BUT there were that many at least who never got into the Bowl. Due to the ruling that only those who hold Associated Student tickets are to be admitted to the rooting section, several couples decided that they would go elsewhere.

Wide and varied are the reasons for dropping out of school—jobs, lack of jobs, home duties, and even transfers to other schools, but with many who drop out their interests are still school interests. Their friends are still school friends and their dates are still school dates. When they go to the games they still want to be identified with the school, not with the alumni. This fact is recognized by the various dance committees and "outsiders" are allowed to go to the formals and other activities.

Why not change our ruling for

On Freshmen

Question: What do you think of freshmen?

Ralph Beckman—The boys—and the girls too—are a bunch of cream puffs. Nobody gets out of line. It's sickening to watch 'em stay on the freshman lawn; and they all wear their caps.

Maxine Fitzgerald—You just can't tell those freshies anything!

Henry Corneil—There are some pretty cute ones around—a few, not many.

Evans Evans—They certainly stick together.

Serena Stevens—There seems to be a raft of 'em. They're all over the place.

Mary Holmes—They'd better start wearin' their beanies—especially a lad named Eddie Morris.

Betty Halloran—The girls are darlin'.

Hoxie Smith—They'll be good sophomores.

Mary Corey—The class is just swell—parts of it.

Dick Way—If it weren't for the beanies, you couldn't tell 'em from the sophomores.

Bethel Haven—They sure outnumber us.

(Ed. Note: Next week the freshmen will answer the question: What do you think of sophomores.)

On Conscription

El Don, attempting to catch the drift of campus opinion, quizzed several students eligible for the draft. These samplings do not necessarily indicate the complete trend; however they will serve to point out the general direction of college opinion.

Question: "Do you believe that peacetime conscription is good or bad?"

Ferris Wall (21)—It's a good thing. I think it's much better to have some training than to be untrained in case war comes. Every high school should have a ROTC unit.

Tony Podobnik (21)—A good thing. First of all it's a duty; as long as we have a democratic government we should protect it. I don't believe in going to war in another country, but we should protect our country.

Paul Sedar (21)—For kids roaming the street, the draft is a good thing. They should be glad to have someone give them three square meals a day. But kids going to college or taking care of their folks shouldn't have to go.

To get the feminine angle, Gerry Griffith, assistant women's PE instructor, was asked for her opinion. Her reply: "It'll improve the boys' postures; I can't stand round-shouldered men."

Dwight Nott (21)—It's necessary. But there shouldn't be partiality in selecting. There probably will be a lot of exemptions though.

Skiing to Catalina Alumna Did It

Completing a trip to Santa Catalina island on water skis, Miss Vivian Stanley, '40, achieved the first known feat of that kind on July 21.

Miss Stanley had spent practically every week-end last spring and early summer practicing on the water skis at Lake Elsinore. Leaving the mainland at Coronado del Mar and being towed by her brother Ed, former student, in the Stanley's 18 foot speedboat. She arrived at the island in one hour 20 minutes. The average speed was 40 miles per hour. Although, it has been learned that a Los Angeles man made a similar trip, he left from Los Angeles, which is a shorter distance to Catalina.

Miss Stanley is now enrolled as junior at San Jose State college.

the rooting section and permit these "outsiders" to take part with their friends in boosting the team instead of having to sit across the stadium alone? Put in a ticket window for the use of those who accompany the holders of student tickets and allow them to sit in the same section!—Ruth Wade
